On October 25, 2007, Telkom SA Limited (“Telkom”) issued an announcement regarding its revised top management structure with effect from November 1, 2007. A copy of the announcement is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

All of the statements contained herein and in the exhibits incorporated by reference herein, as well as oral statements that may be made by Telkom or Vodacom, or by officers, directors or employees acting on their behalf, that are not statements of historical facts constitute or are based on forward-looking statements within the meaning of the US Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, specifically Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements involve a number of known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause Telkom’s or Vodacom’s actual results and outcomes to be materially different from historical results or from any future results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Among the factors that could cause Telkom’s or Vodacom’s actual results or outcomes to differ materially from their expectations are those risks identified in Item 3. “Key Information-Risk Factors” contained in Telkom’s most recent Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and its other filings and submissions with the SEC which are available on Telkom’s website at www.telkom.co.za/ir, including, but not limited to, Telkom’s ability to execute on its mobile strategy and any changes thereto, increased competition in the South African telecommunications markets; developments in the regulatory environment; continued mobile growth and reductions in Vodacom’s and Telkom’s net interconnect margins; Vodacom’s and Telkom’s ability to expand their operations and make investments and acquisitions in other African and other countries and the general economic, political, social and legal conditions in South Africa and in other countries where Vodacom and Telkom invest; our ability to attract and retain key personnel; our inability to appoint a majority of Vodacom’s directors and the consensus approval rights at Vodacom that may limit our flexibility and ability to implement our preferred strategies; Vodacom’s continued payment of dividends or distributions to us; our ability to improve and maintain our management information and other systems; our negative working capital; changes in technology and delays in the implementation of new technologies; our ability to reduce theft, vandalism, network and payphone fraud and lost revenue to non-licensed operators; our ability to improve our internal control over financial reporting; health risks related to mobile handsets, base stations and associated equipment; risks related to our control by the Government of the Republic of South Africa and major shareholders and the South African Government’s other positions in the telecommunications industry; the outcome of regulatory, legal and arbitration proceedings, including tariff approvals, and the outcome of Telkom’s hearing before the Competition Commission, its proceedings with Telcordia Technologies Incorporated and others; our ability to negotiate favorable terms, rates and conditions for the provision of interconnection services and facilities; our ability to implement and recover the substantial capital and operational costs associated with carrier pre-selection, number portability and the monitoring, interception and customer registration requirements contained in the South African Regulation of Interception of Communication and Provision of Communication – Related Information Act; Telkom’s ability to comply with

Change in top management structure

Shareholders are advised that Telkom's acting Chief Executive Officer, Mr Reuben September, announced today a revised top management structure which will take effect from 1 November 2007.

The revised top management structure shall consist of the following positions:

Chief Executive Officer

Overall responsibility for the day to day management of Telkom;

Chief of Finance

Responsible for financial reporting, treasury, accounting, procurement and internal audit;

Chief of Operations

Responsible for network infrastructure provisioning, network field operations, network core operations, retail sales and marketing and information operations;

Chief of Global Operations and Subsidiaries

Responsible for global and local subsidiaries, multinational customers and wholesale sales and marketing operations;

Chief of Human Resources

Overall responsibility for human resources management, executive compensation and employee benefits, skills development & talent management, HR strategy and labour relations;

Chief of Strategy

Responsible for group strategy, corporate business development, marketing development, corporate communications, investor relations and integration strategy; and

Chief of Corporate Governance

Responsible for group legal services, regulatory and policy, the Telkom Foundation and group secretarial.

The above positions will make up the Executive Committee of Telkom and the following appointments have been made:

Mr Motlatsi Nzeku – Chief of Operations;

Mr Thami Msimango returns to Telkom as Chief of Global Operations and Subsidiaries;

Ms Charlotte Mokoena - Chief of Human Resources; and

Ms Ouma Rasethaba – Chief of Corporate Governance.

As previously announced, Mr Deon Fredericks will act in the position of Chief of Finance while Mr Naas Fourie will act in the position of Chief of Strategy.

Mr September noted that the revised management structure is necessary to align the structure to best match the current business needs of Telkom. The revised structure will facilitate faster decision-making and more effective execution, smoother integration of its various operating entities and that multinationals and wholesale customers are better served through the most appropriate channels.
