SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

All of the statements contained herein and in the exhibits incorporated by reference herein, as well as oral statements that may be made by Telkom or Vodacom, or by officers, directors or employees acting on their behalf, that are not statements of historical facts constitute or are based on forward-looking statements within the meaning of the US Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, specifically Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements involve a number of known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause Telkom's or Vodacom's actual results and outcomes to be materially different from historical results or from any future results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Among the factors that could cause Telkom's or Vodacom's actual results or outcomes to differ materially from their expectations are those risks identified in Item 3. "Key Information-Risk Factors" contained in Telkom's most recent Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and its other filings and submissions with the SEC which are available on Telkom's website at www.telkom.co.za/ir, including, but not limited to, increased competition in the South African telecommunications markets; developments in the regulatory environment; continued mobile growth and reductions in Vodacom's and Telkom's net interconnect margins; Vodacom's and Telkom's ability to expand their operations and make investments and acquisitions in other African and other countries and the general economic, political, social and legal conditions in South Africa and in other countries where Vodacom and Telkom invest; our ability to attract and retain key personnel; our inability to appoint a majority of Vodacom's directors and the consensus approval rights at Vodacom that may limit our flexibility and ability to implement our preferred strategies; Vodacom's continued payment of dividends or distributions to us; our ability to improve and maintain our management information and other systems; our negative working capital; changes in technology and delays in the implementation of new technologies; our ability to reduce theft, vandalism, network and payphone fraud and lost revenue to non-licensed operators; our ability to improve our internal control over financial reporting; health risks related to mobile handsets, base stations and associated equipment; risks related to our control by the Government of the Republic of South Africa and major shareholders and the South African Government's other positions in the telecommunications industry; the outcome of regulatory, legal and arbitration proceedings, including tariff approvals, and the outcome of Telkom's hearing before the Competition Commission, its proceedings with Telcordia Technologies Incorporated and others; our ability to negotiate favorable terms, rates and conditions for the provision of interconnection services and facilities; our ability to implement and recover the substantial capital and operational costs associated with carrier pre-selection, number portability and the monitoring, interception and customer registration requirements contained in the South African Regulation of Interception of Communication and Provision of Communication – Related Information Act; Telkom's ability to comply with the South African Public Finance Management Act and South African Public Audit Act and the impact of the Municipal Property Rates Act; fluctuations in the value of the Rand; the impact of unemployment, poverty, crime and HIV infection, labor laws and exchange control restrictions in South Africa; and other matters not yet known to us or not currently considered material by us.

We caution you not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. All written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to Telkom or Vodacom, or persons acting on their behalf, are qualified in their entirety by these cautionary statements. Moreover, unless Telkom or Vodacom is required by law to update these statements, they will not necessarily update any of these statements after the date hereof, either to conform them to actual results or to changes in their expectation.

VODACOM MEDIA STATEMENT: BLACK ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT

Wednesday, January 31, 2007

Alan Knott-Craig, Group Chief Executive Officer, said "Vodacom is and continues to be committed to the ICT Charter on BEE. The Management of Vodacom have been tasked to submit proposals to the Vodacom Group Board for equity participation by suitable BEE entities. To this end a large number of applications have been received from such entities. Vodacom Management hopes to submit its proposals to the Vodacom Group Board in March 2007. All indications suggest that the size of the transaction will be in the vicinity of R7.5 billion. Vodacom are being advised on this transaction by Rand Merchant Bank."

Introduction of BEE partner into Swiftnet

Telkom is pleased to announce the sale of a 30% stake in Swiftnet to empowerment investors, the Radio Surveillance Consortium ("RSC"), for R55 million following a competitive sale process run by an independent adviser. The transaction has been concluded without any financial support or facilitation from Telkom. The transaction is still subject to competition and ICASA approval.

Swiftnet is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Telkom and provides asynchronous wireless access on Telkom's X.25 network, Saponet-P. Swiftnet operates under the name Fastnet Wireless Service, providing services to clients using retail credit card and check point of sale terminal verification, telemetry, security and vehicle tracking. Commenting on the transaction, Telkom CEO Papi Molotsane said "Telkom and Swiftnet have demonstrated their commitment to the spirit and principles of empowerment with this transaction. We are proud to be at the forefront of empowerment in the telecommunications sector, and we look forward to working with RSC to ensure Swiftnet's continued success."

Following the completion of the transaction, Swiftnet will be fully compliant with ICASA's license requirements which stipulate that license holders must have 30% empowerment shareholding.
