SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

All of the statements contained herein and in the exhibits incorporated by reference herein, as well as oral statements that may be made by Telkom or Vodacom, or by officers, directors or employees acting on their behalf, that are not statements of historical facts constitute or are based on forward-looking statements within the meaning of the US Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, specifically Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

These forward-looking statements involve a number of known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause Telkom’s or Vodacom’s actual results and outcomes to be materially different from historical results or from any future results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Among the factors that could cause Telkom’s or Vodacom’s actual results or outcomes to differ materially from their expectations are those risks identified in Item 3. “Key Information-Risk Factors” contained in Telkom’s most recent Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and its other filings and submissions with the SEC which are available on Telkom’s website at www.telkom.co.za/ir, including, but not limited to, any changes to Telkom’s mobile strategy and its ability to successfully implement such strategy and any changes thereto; increased competition in the South African telecommunications markets; developments in the regulatory environment; continued mobile growth and reductions in Vodacom’s and Telkom’s net interconnect margins; Vodacom’s and Telkom’s ability to expand their operations and make investments and acquisitions in other African and other countries and the general economic, political, social and legal conditions in South Africa and in other countries where Vodacom and Telkom invest; our ability to attract and retain key personnel; our inability to appoint a majority of Vodacom’s directors and the consensus approval rights at Vodacom that may limit our flexibility and ability to implement our preferred strategies; Vodacom’s continued payment of dividends or distributions to us; our ability to improve and maintain our management information and other systems; our negative working capital; changes in technology and delays in the implementation of new technologies; our ability to reduce theft, vandalism, network and payphone fraud and lost revenue to non-licensed operators; our ability to improve our internal control over financial reporting; health risks related to mobile handsets, base stations and associated equipment; risks related to our control by the Government of the Republic of South Africa and major shareholders and the South African Government’s other positions in the telecommunications industry; the outcome of regulatory, legal and arbitration proceedings, including tariff approvals, and the outcome of Telkom’s hearing before the Competition Commission, its proceedings with Telcordia Technologies Incorporated and others; our ability to negotiate favorable terms, rates and conditions for the provision of interconnection services and facilities leasing services; our ability to implement and recover the substantial capital and operational costs associated with carrier pre-selection, Number Portability and the monitoring, interception and customer registration requirements contained in the South African Regulation of Interception of Communication and Provision of Communication – Related Information Act; Telkom’s ability to comply with the South African Public Finance Management Act and South African Public Audit Act and the impact of the Municipal Property Rates Act; fluctuations in the value of the Rand; the impact of unemployment, poverty, crime and HIV infection, labor laws and exchange control restrictions in South Africa; and other matters not yet known to us or not currently considered material by us.

We caution you not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. All written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to Telkom or Vodacom, or persons acting on their behalf, are qualified in their entirety by these cautionary statements. Moreover, unless Telkom or Vodacom is required by law to update these statements, they will not necessarily update any of these statements after the date hereof, either to conform them to actual results or to changes in their expectation.

Telkom SA Limited (TKG) Repurchase of ordinary shares

1. Introduction

Further to the announcement of 17 July 2006, shareholders are advised that Telkom has repurchased 16,759,958 Telkom ordinary shares (3.01% of the original issued ordinary shares) on the JSE Limited ("JSE"), since and in accordance with the general authority granted by Telkom shareholders at the annual general meeting held on 21 October 2005 and renewed respectively at the annual general meetings of 20 October 2006 and 26 October 2007 ("the repurchase"). The repurchases were effected on the open market in accordance with paragraph 5.72 (a) of the JSE Listings Requirements.

2. Authorised repurchase limits

In terms of the special resolution the general authority is limited to a maximum of 20% of Telkom's issued ordinary share capital. Therefore a maximum of 106,571,105 ordinary shares (being 20% of the 532,855,528 ordinary shares in issue as at 26 October 2007) may be repurchased in terms of the said general authority.

3. Implementation

The repurchase of 8,582,752 Telkom ordinary shares by Telkom was executed between 14 July 2006 and 17 January 2007. The repurchase of 8,177,206 Telkom ordinary shares was executed between 22 January 2008 and 19 February 2008. The repurchases were effected as market conditions allowed. No ordinary shares were repurchased in closed periods.

* 8,582,752 ordinary shares have already been cancelled from the issued share capital and 8,177,206 ordinary shares are in the process of being cancelled.

4. Source of funds

Repurchases to date has been funded from available cash resources.

5. Opinion of the directors

The directors of Telkom have considered the impact of the repurchases and are of the opinion that:-

5.1 Telkom and the group will be able, in the ordinary course of business, to pay their debts for a period of 12 months from the date of this announcement;

5.2 the assets of Telkom and the group will be in excess of the liabilities of Telkom and the group for a period of 12 months from the date of this announcement, measured in accordance with the accounting policies used in the audited annual financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2007;

5.3 the ordinary share capital and consolidated reserves of Telkom and the group will be adequate for a period of 12 months from the date of this announcement; and

5.4 the working capital of Telkom and the group will be adequate for a period of 12 months from the date of this announcement.

6. Financial effects

	As reported at 31 March 2007¹	Pro forma^{2,3}	% Change
Earnings per share (cents)	1,681.0	1,693.8	0.8
Headline earnings per share (cents)	1,710.7	1,724.0	0.8
Net asset value per share (cents)	6,223.2	6,101.4	(2.0)
Tangible net asset value per share (cents)	5,220.6	5,082.5	(2.6)

¹. Reported results are based on the weighted average shares in issue taking into account the 8,582,752 purchased and cancelled prior to 31 March 2007.

². Pro forma numbers presented are based on the assumption that the 8,177,206 ordinary shares purchased after 31 March 2007, were purchased on 1 April 2006

³. For the purposes of calculating the earnings and headline earnings per share, it is assumed that all repurchases were financed by excess cash on hand on which interest was received at an after tax rate of 6.5% per annum.
